Just One Night (Sister Dottie)

Things are on track and going well.

Dottie formally requested that someone in the house pick up making the basket for the Alamo Empire because he's swamped with things between now and the SF trip.

No one volunteered.

Fiesta Medals (Sister Skharlott)

Skharlott has fiesta medals still and encourages the House to actively sell the stock we have. Eliza and Skharlott are doing Pin Pandemonium, but there's a list of medal selling/trading events.

NEW BUSINESS:

Wimples of the World (Sister Dottie)

40th Anniversary event in SF has a display of the coronet of every House. Sister Rhoda will write the history of the San Antonio coronet for the display.

Family Night (Sister Dottie)

Family night is coming up March 23rd. Meeting at Dottie's house and manifesting together. After some discussion it was decided that we would go to the strip and then divide off and into smaller groups to visit the bars.

Fiesta Youth Prom (Sister Dottie)

Wants people to consider being chaperons for the Fiesta Youth Prom night on May 4th. As there are kids involved, background checks are most likely required. Anyone interested reach out to Dottie and he'll get our names in.

TABC renewals (Sister Cher)

Everyone needs to make sure they are current on TABC. Cher, Dottie, and Cel are all expiring and need to renew soon.

Community Events

There will be adult and kid friendly events and all the food/drinks will be provided for the $10 entry fee. They are selling tickets, just reach out to them to get one.

Temple of Flesh: Temple would love the Sisters attending Exotic Easter to tend to the Silent Auction table.

NLA: SACK (San Antonio Coalition of Kink) has been formed. This group is meant to be a pathway for the multiple organizations in San Antonio to discuss together things like a community dungeon and community center.
